

Screening

A screening is a brief, simple procedure used to identify those who may be at risk. If you a screener is not passed, a full comprehensive evaluation is recommended.