

Contracting

To help school districts meet their steadily growing school-based speech and language therapy needs, iSpeak Speech Therapy partners with school districts to offer exceptional speech and language services to school-age children in-person and via teletherapy.