

Evaluations

A comprehensive evaluation is an assessment that determines the presence of a disorder. These tests are individualized based on your child's needs. At the end of the evaluation, a follow-up meeting will be planned to discuss the results of the assessment and recommendations.

iSpeak Speech Therapy will help support and guide you through this process and work collaboratively to develop a personalized treatment plan for your child if needed.